

The Bee Hive

The crowds of patrons constantly at our white goods counters but prove our earlier predictions that this would be a great white goods season. We keep in touch with Dame Fashion's whims and prepare accordingly. Consequently never before have we done such a white goods business or had such a choice and extensive stock. You'll find here Dimities from 6c. to 45c. a yard. We buy India Linens a year ahead of season direct from the mills, hence our exceptionally low prices 5c. to 20c. a yard. Persians Lawns and Paris muslins 39c. to 89c. a yard. Pure Linen Lawns thirty-six inches wide 45c. yard. Organdies and Swiss 19c. to 85c. yard. Also scores of pieces of cross bar Muslins, white Madras Cloths with satin stripes; plain and fancy Piques at prices ranging from 4½c. to 45c. a yard. It's a white goods stock that will save you money, and worthy of your critical inspection.

MR. WILLIAM LALLEY.

Sudden Death of a Well Known Citizen.
Stricken With Paralysis at 10
O'clock This Morning.

The announcement of the death of Mr. William Lalley this morning came as a shock to his many friends.

While working in an alley near his home on Bridge street about 10 o'clock he was suddenly stricken with paralysis. He was carried into his home by Mr. J. J. Deming, who lives in the adjoining residence.

Dr. Samuel was hastily summoned, but Mr. Lalley never rallied, dying about twenty minutes after being stricken.

Deceased was about sixty-six years old, and was one of Maysville's most enterprising citizens. His wife survives and he leaves three daughters and one son, Thomas, a member of the firm of Leonard & Lalley.

The funeral arrangements will be announced to-morrow.

OVERDOSE OF CHLOROFORM.

Mr. Pearce Mills Died Saturday at His Home on Forest Avenue From Drinking the Drug.

Mr. Pearce Mills died Saturday morning at 11:30 o'clock at his home on Forest avenue, aged thirty-one years.

In a fit of despondency two weeks ago last night he drank a mixture of whisky and chloroform with suicidal intent. Antidotes were administered at the time and it was thought for a while that he would recover. Saturday morning, however, he was taken worse and died from the effects of the drug.

His wife, who was Miss Katie Rains, survives, with three young children.

The funeral takes place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family residence, Howard T. Cree officiating. Burial in Maysville Cemetery.

DAVID SINTON, the well known Cincinnati millionaire, ill for some time, called his faithful coachman into his room last week, and in the presence of witnesses, presented him with fifty shares of Cincinnati street railway stock, valued at $3,300, to do as he pleases with.

ATTORNEY GENERAL BRECKINRIDGE will file a written motion in the Court of Appeals to-day, asking the court, on the grounds of public interest, to allow the minor State contest cases to be docketed and heard for trial at once. The court recently declined to pass on several motions pending in the cases, holding that they must be docketed in the usual way, which would have the effect of laying them over until fall.

Glorious News

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. J. Wood & Son, druggists. Guaranteed.

MRS. JULIA SUTTON.

Death of One of Aberdeen's Oldest Citizens at an Early Hour This Morning.

Mrs. Julia Sutton died this morning shortly after 3 o'clock at her home in Aberdeen, aged eighty-three years.

Deceased leaves two sons,—Mr. N. J. Sutton, of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, and Mr. C. B. Sutton, of Aberdeen. Her husband, George W., died in 1896.

The funeral will take place Tuesday at 2 o'clock p. m. Services by Rev. Armacost. Burial in Charter Oak Cemetery.

There Are Few Business Concerns..

That retain the hold upon the public for so many years (over half a century) as ours.

In these years many clothing people have come here and after so long or short a time, like the Arabs, silently folded their tents and stole away. It is the ever watchful care of the interests of our patrons that makes our house the "Home Store." The majority deal here with a blind confidence born of many year's fair dealing. It is a common saying (you know it is) if you want the proper thing go to HECHINGER'S.

Our present stock in everything that pertains to our business is well worthy of your consideration.
